

JAGDPANTHER 4

BY
STEPHEN V. COLE

JagdPanther is the Official Journal of the International Confederation of War Gamers. Published Quarterly. Printing by Amarillo Blueprint Co. Itek/Offset.

Copyright 1973 by Stephen V Cole. No PART of this or any other page may be reproduced without the express written permission of the Publisher.

Purchasers of this issue have the permission of the publisher to make copies of the Flight Status Charts for the Aircraft in the Game "Komets and Meteor" for their own private use.

Subscriptions:

1/$2.00 4/7.50 8/14.00

First Class Postage 35¢ per issue.

Airmail Postage 55¢ per issue.

Inserts in issue 4:

Sidi Rezegh Maps (6, on Buff paper)

German Counter Sheet (Gray)

British Counter Sheet (Pink)

JAGDPANTHER/ICW

1540 Parr

Amarillo, Tx, 79106

In our next issue.....

Zeppelin--Strategic Bombing during World War I. With Die Cut Counters.

Archer!--Man to man combat circa 1600 B.C. Simultaneous Movement. (Rip-off of SPI Sniper!)

In This Issue.....

The PanzerBlitz Module System
Sink the Graf Spee! (Game)
Sidi Rezegh (Game)
Komets and Meteor (Game)
Halocaust (Game)
Snipe Hunt!
And More!....

All checks should be made out to JagdPanther Pubs./ICW, payable in US Dollars. Foreign Customers are encouraged to use Bank Drafts and Money Orders in US Funds. Texas Residents add 4% Sales Tax, Amarillo Residents add 5%. Foreign Orders must include postage over US 3rd Class.

Contests, Puzzles, etc.

Well, the answer to Issue 1's Puzzle is solved! Where are the Maps?, the question no one could answer, was answered by Larry Earhart with a rousing "Right here!" as he presented them to us. We have sent out several sets, if we owe you one let us know. Issue 3's Puzzles as follows: What really happened to Larry Earhart? Answer--(by S K Howard) He fell down the Cole Shaft. What was the shortest war in History?--By J Maxwell) The Zanzibar war (41 minutes). Who was the best Cavalry General in the American Civil War? One vote each for Forrest, Stuart, Morgan, Imboden, Custer, Sheridan. No one solved the wordgram, so we